WWW.MARYMOUNT.EDU/TITLEIX

Have you experienced sexual assault, rape, interpersonal violence, and/or stalking? If so, it is not your fault and you are not alone. The Title IX Office is here to help you.

Marymount University is committed to providing a safe environment, free of discrimination, harassment, and violence. Your health and well-being are our primary concerns. The University will take immediate action in all allegations of sexual misconduct to protect the safety of the individuals involved and the community. The Title IX Office provides the following services:

SUPPORT & ADVOCACY

The Title IX Office provides private support to survivors of sexual assault, interpersonal violence, rape, and/or stalking on campus. Support and advocacy services include emotional support, safety planning, connection with local resources, and assistance with academic/residential support (room changes, no-contact orders, counseling referrals).

HELP WITH REPORTING

It is your choice whether or not to file a report on or off campus. If you choose to report, it is important to preserve any evidence you have that might prove a crime was committed. The Title IX Office can help you file a formal report with the University or with the police. Even if you do not report, you have the option to obtain support and/or a no-contact order.

REPORTING TO THE TITLE IX OFFICE

The Title IX Office receives, responds to, and addresses all reports of sexual misconduct and concerns about gender equity that affect members of Marymount community. They do this by responding to incidents, supporting those who have been harmed, and educating community members on how to create a safe and supportive campus that encourages healthy and respectful relationships. You may submit a report through our online report system by using the QR code below.

CONFIDENTIALITY

At Marymount University, there are individuals on campus that can offer confidentiality while others ("Mandatory Reporters") have an obligation to report any sexual misconduct when they receive a report. If you are unsure if someone is a confidential source or a mandatory reporter, ask them before you talk.

Confidential resources do not have to report that you came forward for help or support so you can talk to them in confidence that your privacy will be maintained unless someone's life is in immediate danger.
